Junior's THROUGH THE YEARS

1929 Harry Rosen opens the Enduro Restaurant/Nightclub on the corner of Flatbush & DeKalb Avenues.

1948-49 The old Enduro closes and a new "palace of a restaurant" is erected in its place. Harry Rosen names it Junior's, after his two sons Marvin and Walter.

1950 Election Day – the doors to Junior's officially open. Over-stuffed sandwiches and sky-scraper desserts become a way of life for Brooklynites.

1950's After serious research and laboratory-like experimentation, Harry Rosen and his master baker hit upon the secret formula for Junior's famous cheesecake.

1960's The senior Rosen retires and his two "junior's", Walter and Marvin, take over the restaurant.

1970's Junior's most fabulous cheesecake is rated #1 by New York Magazine. People start to flock to this Brooklyn landmark just for an award-winning slice.

1981 August 17 A fire blazes through Junior's, and customers line the sidewalks crying, "Save the cheesecake!" The badly damaged restaurant closes for nine months.

1982 Junior's finally reopens, better than ever. Mayor Ed Koch and Brooklyn President Howard Golden attend the ribbon-cutting ceremony, and Governor Mario Cuomo declares May 27 Junior's Restaurant Day.

1989 Junior's World-Famous Cheesecake becomes available through mail-order. It's shipped frozen to anywhere in the U.S., and arrives as fresh and delicious as if you were sitting in Junior's Restaurant. The magic number to order is 1-800-9 JUNIORS.

1990 Junior's remains a family-run restaurant as the next generation of Rosens becomes involved.

1999 "Welcome to Junior's!" is published. The nostalgic tour of the 1930's to 1990's Brooklyn features reminiscences and recipes from the legendary Brooklyn Junior's.

2000 Junior's opens its second location in Grand Central Station.

2006 To the delight of New Yorkers, Junior's on Shubert Alley opens on 45th Street, in the heart of the theater district.

2007 Junior's second cookbook is published, simply entitled "Cheesecake." The book features 50 to-die-for recipes for Junior's renowned New York style cheesecake.

2008 Junior's opens its fourth location in the exciting new Fox Tower at Foxwood's Resort & Casino.

2015 NYC Mayor Bill DeBlasio declares November 3rd, 2015 "Junior's Day" in honor of Junior's 65th Anniversary.

2016 Junior's opens the doors to their highly anticipated South Florida restaurant in Boca Raton. Residents of "The Sixth Borough" flock to get a taste of their Brooklyn favorites.

2017 11 Years after opening Junior's on Shubert Alley, Junior's opens its second restaurant in Times Square - Junior's on 49th Street.
